

Tokio Hotel, Louder Than Love

Just trust yourself tonight
For once
In your life
I see it like a colour up against a darker sky
Lightin' up the map to our escape
I can hear your damaged heart
Screamin' through your eyes
Hush the pain away

Nothing's louder than love
So whisper your heart
Don't be scared of the dark
Nothing's louder than love ,oh
So whisper your heart
Don't be scared of the dark
Oh, woah, oh woah, oh woah, oh woah
Louder than, louder than, louder

Floating sounds of loneliness
Echoed through the night
Raise your hands and cover your ears
And if you have the courage now
Leave them by your side
For once
In your life

Just trust yourself tonight
For once
In your life
