

Tom McRae, Jet Engine Lullabye

I read your name in the vapour trail
I set myself aflame to hear you say
Anything at all
Anything at all

I raised a glass
And drank to life and
We live like prey, we still
Are scared of something
Falling from the sky
What's falling from the sky?

I'm not gonna cry
Jet engine lullaby
Sing our souls to sleep
I'm not gonna cry
Baby that's not me

Hey you, what's wrong?
This feeling's blameless
Cross a thousand skies
Something changes
So walk out, I'm going
Baby you just sleep

I'm not gonna cry
Jet engine lullaby
Will sing our souls to sleep
I'm not gonna cry
Baby, that's not me

I'm not gonna slip
I'm not gonna give this away
I'm not gonna stop
Until we drop
Into the waves

Yeah, yeah, yeah...

I'm not gonna cry
Jet engine lullaby
Will sing our souls to sleep
I'm not gonna cry
Be alright
Until you leave
