

Tom Odell, Answer Phone

Here I go again
Wasting all my days away
It's a funny thing
How some things never seem to change
27 years of age
Head spin like a satellite
If you thought I was going to behave tonight
You're wrong
I'm drunk and I'm a mess
Dressed up like its Halloween
Dancing alone to Billy Jean
Praying that somebody takes me home
Praying that tonight I won't have to sleep alone
With your answering phone

Here I go again
Wasting all my money babe
Its a funny thing
How some things never seem to change
I'm sick of all this cheap cocaine
I ain't got no appetite
If you thought I was going to behave tonight
You're wrong
I don't wanna be a star
Famous on the party scene
Dancing alone to Billy Jean
Praying that somebody takes me home
Praying that tonight I won't have to sleep alone
With your answering phone
Smile even if you're feeling sad
