

Tom Odell, money

More more, gotta make more gotta make more, gotta make more money gotta make more, gotta make more
gotta make more, gotta make more
gotta make more, gotta make more money
gotta make more, gotta make more
gotta make more, gotta make more
gotta make more, gotta make more money

walk out the door
thank the Lord for my Gucci and Dior we're looking so great
we take, take, take all we gotta do is

take another picture of me
take another picture of me take another hit and you'll see that if you want it you gotta get mean 'cause we're just kids climbing up the trees just kids climbing up the trees

we're looking so great

gotta make more, gotta make more

fuck them, it's all about me
fuck them, it's all about me
fuck them, it's all about me
fuck them, it's all about me
fuck them, it's all about me i gotta buy my house, a family and

we're looking so great

if you wanna be happy gotta make more money (if you wanna be happy)
