

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, You're Gonna G

I don't want you
No more
Ain't gonna give any more
Than you give to me
I don't want you
It's too hard
Can't try any harder
Than you try for me

You're gonna get it babe
I should've quit it babe
But you look so good
Yeah you do, you do
To think that something might change
But I was just a fool
Go to somebody else

Like you do to me
I don't want you
Can't crawl
I can't crawl any further
You never crawled for me

You're gonna get it babe
I should've quit it babe
But you look so good
Yeah you do, you do
To think that something might change
But I was just a fool

You're gonna get it, You're gonna get it, You're gonna get it
Baby you're gonna get it
