Tom T. Hall, That Song Is Driving Me Crazy

That song is driving me crazy I gotta hear it again First time I heard it I was with some friends It's a simple little song you can sing along with an old time melody So would you play that crazy little song again for me That song is driving me crazy...

I love that part about break my heart and baby please come home And I love that line about hurtin' my mind and my beer ain't got no foam That song is driving me crazy...
(horns)
Well you'll sing high and I'll sing low and everybody sing along But everybody quit while I get my kick singin' bring that boogie home Mhm that song is a driving me crazy...
Okay gang well that song is driving me crazy...
That song is driving me crazy...
