

Tooji, Say Yeah

Say everything comes when the time is right
Only sunshine after the darkest night
You got what you got, why won't you smile?
Why won't you live? I fell

Long before I ever knew
That you were out there
Looking like I'm looking too
Whatever did I do?
I do for you, I do for you

Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah

Time living with you in another age
Another place, love was all we had to make
I call for you, take me there, take me there
Bring it back, bring it back
It's like a hollowed place of memories
Of what could be, fighting my mentality
Where are you now? I'm calling out
I've got your name, I've got your name

Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah, say yeah
If you feel me
Say yeah

Don't need nobody but you
Don't need nobody but you
By my side, by my side, by my side, by my side
Don't need nobody but you
By my side, by my side, by my side, by my side

Say yeah
Say yeah, if you feel me
Say yeah, if you feel me
Say yeah, if you feel me
Say yeah, if you feel me
Say yeah
