Tracy Chapman, Bridges

All the bridges that you burn Come back one day to haunt you One day you'll find you're walking Lonely

Baby I Never meant to hurt you Sometimes the best intentions Still don't make things right

But all my ghosts they find me Like my past they think they own me In dreams and dark corners they surround me Till I cry I cry

Let me take this time to set the record straight Let me take this time to take it all back Let me take this time to tell you how I felt Let me take this time to try and make it right

But you can
Walk away
Be all alone
Spend all your time
Thinking about the way things used to be
If love feels right
You work it out
You don't give it up
Baby

Anybody tell you that Anybody tell you that Anybody tell you that

You should take some time maybe sleep on it tonight You should take some time baby heed the words I said You should take some time think about your life You should take some time before you throw it all away

I ain't got the time To sit here and wait around But I got the time If you say I'm what you want
