

Transtime, Victim of Silence

Another shot of frightening

Another scream of broken heart

My every day is nightmare

There's no way out

Too many circumstances

Just let me know how taste your pain

Mother Nature's cryin'

Can't stop the rain

So many fails and broken chances

And if you're there, just let me know

?Cause everytime I try move on

I'm victim of Silence

My every touch enjoyed too much

Fullfilled of violence

If can you hear my falling tears

so listen blowing of the wind

?Cause everytime I try move on

I'm victim of silence

My sky's full of Angels

But broken wings just made them gone

Forgiveness and the revenge

Created my soul

My hope turned to desert

My feelings burned by blood-red sun

I try to find my heaven

between the lies

So many fails and broken chances
And if you're there, just let me know

?Cause everytime I try move on
I'm victim of Silence
My every touch enjoyed too much
Fullfilled of violence
If can you hear my falling tears
so listen blowing of the wind
?Cause everytime I try move on
I'm victim of silence...
