

Trespassers William, Umbrella

You've waited to say
"there's no way our bodies are one"
Until today
With the rain under umbrellas
The cover was warm but there's a hole
And the rain comes in
Stand as far as you want
Right now i don't think
The rain will cry with us
Love let down the umbrella
Afraid i'll see you as you are
And your eyes falter
I won't say "stay"
I'll play the marble heart
You're beautiful
Maybe so but it's gotten dark
So it's just you walking through
The pain you made
Love tell me more I
Et it pour
I don't feel the rain
The rain will cry with us
Love let down the umbrella
Afraid i'll see you as you are
And your eyes falter
My silence
An ornament that you'll keep
It would've been easy
If i'd break and weep
Taste your own tears when you go to sleep
Love under your umbrella
Still beautiful maybe so