

Triinu Kivilaan, All the different girls

I can see the memories in my mind
But I cant feel their meaning anymore
All the kind of things we had
I cant wait, I cant wait and there is no way back

REFREN:

This is the end of the time that we have spent
You can play your games on all the different girls. Face it!
This is the end of time we have spent
You can turn your face tight to all the different girls
You may not take it yet for granted
But theres no doubt about the end at all
You cant believe what I have said
But its true, yeah its true
And there is no way back
