Trisha Yearwood, Lonesome Dove

I hear a lonesome dove off in the distance His cry echoes out through the hills He's sad that his lover flew off with another And I know the sorrow he feels

Lonesome dove we're not that different You sing a sad song but you're not alone You've been forever forsaken by the one that you love I know how you feel lonesome dove

I've tried to run from the pain of his memory But I can't find a place I can hide And that old lonesome dove is gonna mourn for his love No matter how far he flies

Lonesome dove we're not that different You sing a sad song but you're not alone You've been forever forsaken by the one that you love I know how you feel lonesome dove
