

Trouble, Requiem

Memories garden just came true
Now theres nothing I can do for you
All the good times we once had
Wonder why I feel so sad

Come on listen to the wind my friend
You can still hear her sing
Come on listen to the wind my friend
She is everywhere

Only trying to get me home
Never felt so alone you know
Now I pray your soul to keep
Closed your eyes get some sleep

Come on listen to the wind my friend
You can still hear her sing
Come on listen to the wind my friend
She is everywhere

I can see you in my mind
All those moments are now lost in time
Requiem can now be sung
Wonder why she died so young

Come on listen to the wind my friend
You can still hear her sing
Come on listen to the wind my friend
She is everywhere
