

Troye Sivan, STUD

Hey stud
You can come and
You can come and meet me out front
You gotta all the muscles the features i want
And i want
What i want, my love

Hey tough
What's it like to be so big
And strong, and so buff?
Everything i am not
But could i still be a hunk to you?
Enough for you
A stud to you

Taking the fun out of fucks
Searching for something i am not
Knowing that you're not the one
(but you're teh one for right now)

How much of me would you take?
And ow much of me would you change?
On second though don't say a thing
(coz you're the one for right now)

Just let me believe that you like what you're seeing
When you're looking at me and your heartbeat is speeding
At seven hundred miles down highways to Eden
Like my body's the apple you're eating

You're into this, right?
We should do this, right?
You could make my night
We should do this, right?
