

Trust, Sulk

Forge your heels and skip the wise
Honestly, I can't take tonight
Here's living proof on my finger tips
When your mouth beside, I know you're real

Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted sees
Break through my Sulk
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted these
Fist to the ground
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted me
Safe with my Sulk
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted these

Now I feel the love I've waited for

Moving your hips too litteral
Demon high he's bound to fall
Heart and soul like I knew you would
When you say love, It sounds so good

Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted sees
Break through my Sulk
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted these
Fist to the ground
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted me
Safe with my Sulk
Everybody wanted to come, everybody wanted these

Now I feel the love I've waited for it's not too wrong to let it blow
... the radio, dance to fall,
...the radio, dance to fall
