

Tune, Confused

Urban mazes, labyrinths
Compressed spaces, cavities
Shapeless faces, violent scenes
Mindless workers, fertile queens

Have you ever seen me in this place before?
I guess I lost myself, it's not an illusion
The more I get to know the less I can control
Don't know which way to go, I'm so confused

Crowded places, sedatives
Daily wages, basic needs
Squirrel cages, loony bins
Mindless workers, fertile queens

Have you ever seen me in this place before?
I guess I lost myself, it's not an illusion
The more I get to know the less I can control
Don't know which way to go, I'm so confused

Crowded places, sedatives

Squirrel cages, loony bins
Mindless workers, fertile queens

Have you ever seen me in this place before?
I guess I lost myself, it's not an illusion
The more I get to know the less I can control
Don't know which way to go, I'm so confuse
