

Tupac, (Poetry) Black Woman

The day I met U I saw strength and I knew from that point on that U were pure woman 2 me Possessing a spirit that was strong I want smiles 2 replace the sorrow that U have encountered in the past and since it was strength that attracted me 2 U it will take strength 2 make it last My negative side will attempt 2 change U but please fight that with your all it will be your strength that keep us both standing while others around us fall
