

Twin-A, Grace

Love
Let it go away
Rest that body to my skin
Where I let you in again
I, am silently afraid
Of what you do to me with words
I know it sounds so absurd
But darling I'm so amazed

Stay
Stay with me a while
I can try to feel you near
Pull in close then disappear
Then I'm getting stronger all the time
What is it that you can say
That can make me feel this way
Darling I'm so amazed

Love we all fall from grace
Eventually
No one is safe from this reality
Jump
Take a leap of faith
But inevitably one day we'll have to face

Love we all fall from grace
Eventually
No one is safe from this reality
Jump
Take a leap of faith
But inevitably one day we'll have to face
We'll have to face
We'll have to face
Our own gravity

Love we all fall from grace
Eventually
