

Tyr, Dragons Never Die

Long ago and far away a lindwyrn lay upon his hoard
No spear or sword could scratch a scale
Some gilded tale drew lads and lords
Enticed towards enormous hoards high on gold

And I too would want to try
The lindwyrn I will defy
But one look into his eye
I knew, dragons never die

Whoever said and they lived happily forever after lied
For tale and time go on no matter if I fail or find the Unimaginable hoard high on gold

And I too would want to try
The lindwyrn I will defy
But one look into his eye
I knew, dragons never die

I knew, dragons never die
The lindwyrn I will defy
But one look into his eye
I knew, dragons never die

My own shadow soul will fly
I take to the stormy sky

Dragons never die
