

Uh Huh Her, Everyone

Long lives the fear
we'll be forgotten
It's a sad sad world we're in to not believe something And we'll stop the world from falling just to stay alive
And I say don't ask me why do I disbelieve, tell me

Everyone is telling us
something's wrong with us
Everyone is saying
we're lost somehow
I wanna know
Do you believe in something Everyone seems to have lost themselves

I just need a sign that we have found one voice Cause it's a mad mad world I see to end up with nothing So we fight for what is right with no compromise
And I say please ask me why I believe in living, tell me

Everyone is telling us
Everyone is saying
we're lost somehow (oh)
I wanna know
Do you believe in something
lost themselves
