

Under The Shadow, Fading Moment

Lyrics and Music by J.S. Marler 2006

Just for a moment I can make it fade
A minor cover up, so I can run away
It's like I am in a dream, but I know I am awake
A paranoid peace of mind, that won't go away
What is this bliss? This higher consciousness
The life I knew has changed again
The words I said, the truth within
Never felt like this, never pierced the skin
Sunk into my heart, as I felt your love again
Why did I let this thought ever come in?

Just for a moment can I feel your love again?
For a moment make me feel whole again
