

Unitopia, This Life

I overflow with senses enhanced
As the blood flows through my veins
Heart pulsating, I'm entranced
I feel it again and again
I look to the stars to find my path
I get no answers
Thoughts of confusion fill the air
It's you I'm needing

This Life, Our Life
Make it what you desire
This Life, Our Life
It's a gateway to the other side

Moments of passion and a thirst for truth
It's what we reach for
We are one as our spirits bond
We walk through an open door
See our way home, begin the dream
To seek the answer
To every question asked before
It's you I'm leading

This Life, Our Life
Make it what you desire
This Life, Our Life
It's a gateway to the other side

Can you feel it, our life?
Can you feel it? Hear me calling
Can you feel it, this life?
Can you understand the calling?
