

Unkle, When Things Explode

Your skull-fucked little lives...
In shadows where you hide.
A life that was designed...
You've been cheated... oh... so blind.

You laid it on the line...
These twisted words of time,
And how your spirit shines,,,
I wish that you were mine,

Yeah lately... I know that I've been crawling...
I know that I've been... falling...
Into your dream.

Imagine no more tears.
Dissolving all your fears...
With tooth and claw we fight..
Into this endless night.

Yeah lately... I know that I've been crawling...
I know that I've been... falling...
Into your dream.

I... saw my tears... in your eyes,
You saw your... tears in mine...
We watched it burn... together...

I... saw my fears... in your eyes,
You saw your... fear in mine...
We watched it burn... together...
Watched it burn.

Burn... yeah burn...
Watched it burn... burn,,, yeah burn.
Watched it burn... burn... watched it burn.
Watched it burn... burn... watched it burn.

All is forgiven.
