

Unwritten Law, Evolution

So you're looking for another band
Already planned and
You're lookin for another ace
For me to rock him in the face
Cause the full moon's risin
Over a black horizon
This time baptisin

Nothing changes if nothing changes
They're just label whores and I can take no more

Grass is always greener on the other side
Go run and hide, boy
Leave you feelin' for another taste
So we can rock this fuckin place
Cause the sky is fallin
And I'm far from stallin out
Evolution calling

Nothing changes if nothing changes
Yeah, they're just label whores
And silence rages more

He's gone
So you're looking for another plan now
He's down
So you're looking for another man now
One more zero
Nothing changes if nothing changes
Nothing changes if nothing changes
They're just label whores and I can take no more
So what
FUCKKK
