Uriah Heep, Gary's Song

Do we live our lives in moderation?
Does this appear
When you're around?
And the deeper in debt
The harder the bet
Your thoughts are one of a clown

Look out before you sign Your soul away The crystal ball, it seems Is not reading to - reading today

Does the time seem right For some rethinking?

It seems a gift that you have Are you living a dream Of express progress? It's just a thought that you have

Oh, you should've know better When the warning light was lit As it did for others You preach a sermon When you talk of the messiah We are yet to discover

Thinkin', lovin', feelin' But disbelievin' ...
