

US5, Endless Felling

There's a time when you stop pretending
And you see there's a new beginning
There's a truth you can't deny
And comes from deep inside
When your heart one day finds a hero
Like a child who is lost, then rescued
There's a light in your eyes that shines through Simple words can not describe
What the world is trying to find
Have you ever loved someone forever, an endless feeling
Wake up in the morning, see them smiling, an endless feeling
Baby when you look into my eyes, can you feel this endless feeling
I never felt like this before
In love
Now I feel, this will last forever
You and I hand in hand together
Unified, side by side, as one love
You're the light shining down from above
I'm prepared to sacrifice
Just to have you in my life
Have you ever loved someone forever, an endless feeling
Wake up in the morning, see them smiling, an endless feeling
Baby when you look into my eyes, can you feel this endless feeling
I never felt like this before
In love
