

Useless ID, My Therapy

Let's take a trip down memory lane and pass by all the nights, where I'll find myself in your arms again.
There's no inspiration here, let's go, I think we better get out.
But we're stuck deep in the depths of yesterday.

Did you know it's been too long?
This movie never ends, I need you more than anything now.
So much has changed
but we will always be a part of something no one can see.

I called you from England just to hear you say:
"leave a message after the beep"
But it was more than that in your sad voice sound.
The one tape that I left you with,
gave a tear to your eye and left me sick with words
I've been keeping in so long, I'm sorry again.

It's been too long?
This movie never ends, I need you more than anything now.
So much has changed
but we will always be a part of something no one can see.

Take back what you promised, it's been raining since you left me.
Don't you worry at all,
I'll be back before you know it knocking on your door.
