

Valentine, Sad

Last night I met you in my dream You cried and I asked myself how to help you cause you had lost all your hope

But once you told me hope's the one thing...you need

I took your hand and swore that I will never crawl away or try to hide my feelings cause it's wonderful to show what they mean

Bridge:

So believe that there's nothing to recieve(2x)

Chorus:

what could make you being sad (2x)

Forget the last bad time and try to recover
just keep in mind that you could be free

Don't waste your time to declare why you feel that way...
Just renew self-confidence and forget that there's a fence that keeps you away from your life
