Vampire Weekend, Unbelievers

Got a little soul
The world is a cold, cold place to be
Want a little warmth
But who?s going to save a little warmth for me
We know the fire awaits unbelievers
All of the sinners the same
Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train

See the snow come down It?s coming on down from the highest peak Want a little leaf, but who?s going to save a little leaf for me We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train

I?m not excited
But should I be
Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me?
I know I love you
And you love the sea
Wonder if the water contains a little drop little drop for me

See the sun go down It?s going on down when the night is deep Want a little light but who?s going to save a little light for me? We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train

If I?m born again I know that the world will disagree Want a little grace but who?s going to say a little grace for me?

We know the fire awaits unbelievers All of the sinners the same Girl you and I will die unbelievers bound to the tracks of the train

I?m not excited
But should I be
Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me?
I know I love you
And you love the sea
Wonder if the water contains a little drop little drop for me

I?m not excited
But should I be
Is this the fate that half of the world has planned for me?
I know I love you
And you love the sea
Wonder if the water contains a little drop little drop for me
