

Van Morrison, Down to Joy (piosenka z filmu Belfast)

Went to sleep last night
I had a kind of dream for sure
When I woke up in the morning
Felt like I was comin' down to joy

What did I see, what did I hear
When I was comin' down?
I had a brand new story
When I was comin' down to joy

Felt so good, gratitude,
When I was comin' down
Something quite,
Quite profound,
And I cried out loud

I had a brand new story
I was comin' down to joy
She was standin' there before me
When I was comin' down, down, down, down

Felt so good, gratitude,
When I was comin' down
There was something quite profound
That I cried out loud

I had a brand new story that I was
Comin' down to joy
Man, I felt the glory
when I was coming down to joy

She was standin' there before me
When I was comin' down
I said I do adore thee
When I was comin' down to joy

Her vision was before me
When I was comin' down
It was just around the corner
When I was comin' down to joy

Comin' down!
Comin' down to joy
Comin' down to joy

Comin' down!
Comin' down to joy
Comin' down to joy
