Van Morrison, No Way Pedro

(Van Morrison)

No way Pedro, no way Jose I just wanna know, are you goin' my way? Oh, I saw you standin' by the borderline You can never make up your mind

No way Cisco, no way Pancho Why don't you meet me, back at the rancho? Well, if you get there, please don't be late How can I get you now, if I hesitate?

No way Kemosabe, no way Tonto Come here quick, ya gotta make it pronto Well, when you head them, off at the pass Baby, I just want a love to last

No way Pedro, no way Jose Just wanna know, are you goin' my way? Oh, I saw you standin', by the borderline I just want you to make up, your goddamned mind

You'll never make up your mind

Well, you'll never make up your mind
