

Vanden Plas, Crown Of Thorns

Music & Lyrics: A.Kuntz

Fly me morning to the whisper of the trees to the knowledge of the moonlight deception of the peace listen to the wind see the beauty of the tears the lines upon your hand adjure the colour of the fear dream away
dream us away
dream away
'cause all I ever wanted and all I do is listen to the crown of thorns stick it in my head
dry the bleeding in the dirt
in the shade of grace
listen to the crown of tears turn into a palm of rose I'm living on a blade inside a rose who's longing for to fade who didn't understand to be the beauty not the beast the wish inside the essence is to be the thorn and not the face so pierce the nail and not the rose through thoughts in our maze dream away
dream us away
'cause all I ever wanted and all I do is
stick it in my head
in the shade of grace
I'm living in a room inside the man who pulls the trigger down I'm walking every step the dead man's walking to the edge I'm speaking every word the priest said to the nation on a screen insanity create this inhumanity machine
dream away
dream us away
