

Vatslav, Not scared

Hey you've got a gift
A chance to overcome
All your fears
That system attaches
Your temper tells me that you're still
A victim
You know I'm not scared
I can't bear watching them have what we deserve You don't follow me
You still think that we were born in the wrong country
I'm not scared , I'm not scared life is too short to give up
I'm not scared , I'm not scared life is too short to give up
You don't listen to me you don't trust me
You would rather get rid of me
You still think that we were born in the wrong country
I'm not scared , I'm not scared life is too short to give up /x5
