

Vended, Am I The Only One

Longevity

Nothing short of false starts and legacy

I don't wanna let you down, confessedly

I just wanna find a way to sensibly, depressingly, find clarity

I have nothing left to lose but integrity

It's vicious cycle of tendency

Will you ever forgive me regrettably

I don't wanna lose this

(I don't wanna lose this)

Pleading to you is useless

(Pleading to you is useless)

You're not even there

You're not even here

To see I'm trying

God, I'm trying

I don't wanna lose this

(I don't wanna lose this)

Pleading to you is useless

You're not even here

(Pleading to you is useless)

But you're the only thing I fear

Longevity

Nothing short of shit memories

Left deep in the ebony

Will I ever find clarity

Cause' the eyes are watching

Your every self-pity

Unpleasant telepathy

They know my every move

But not my identity

That's not my identity

I don't wanna lose this

(I don't wanna lose this)

Pleading to you is useless

(Pleading to you is useless)

You're not even there

You're not even here

To see I'm trying

God, I'm trying

I don't wanna lose this

(I don't wanna lose this)

Pleading to you is useless

You're not even here

(Pleading to you is useless)

But you're the only thing I fear

Am I the only one

Am I the only one

Am I the only one

Am I the only one

Who has the guts to say he's wrong?

I don't wanna lose this

(I don't wanna lose this)

Pleading to you is useless

(Pleading to you is useless)

You're not even there

You're not even here

To see I'm trying

God, I'm trying
I don't wanna lose this
(I don't wanna lose this)
Pleading to you is useless
You're not even here
(Pleading to you is useless)
But you're the only thing I fear

I am the only thing I fear
I am the only thing I fear
I am the only thing I fear
You're the only thing I
