

Venera, People's Problems

i'm so tired of people's problems, said Claudia to Jean i'm gonna move if it don't change soon this negativity is killing the scene and if it's all but falling apart before our eyes and it's far too late to change the rumours and lies all the lies we both know what's said and done and how long it's been since it was real fun will you promise not to talk about me when i'm gone promise not to talk
