Vengaboys, Wind Beneath My Wings

it must have been cold there in my shadow ☐ you were content to let me shine, that's your way you always walked a step behind to never have sunlight on your face

so i was the one with all the one with all the glory while you were the one with all the strength a beautiful face with out a name, for soo long a beautiful smile to hide the pain

did you ever know that your my hero and everything i with i could be i want you to know that i know the truth of course i know it i would be nothing without you

oh you, you you , you are the wind beneath my wings you, you , you the wind beneath my wings fly, fly, fly away you make me fly soo high you, you , you the wind beneath my wings thank you, thank you, thank you god for you the wind beneath my wings
