

Vice Squad, Business As Usual

I tried to call up Mr. ignorant
The secretary said he'd gone to lunch
So I'm meeting Mr. arrogant
To introduce him to my one inch punch

He's been working hard all day
Working very hard avoiding phone calls
He's been busy doing nothing
Busy busy doing nothing at all

The front page photo story had a price
But he knew it paid to advertise
Now he's bought the good reviews
He's gonna hype it on the airwaves too

He couldn't even play or sing
He had no real talent for anything
Still you wait for the opinion
Of a conceited failed musician

Sitting in his chair all day
Polishing his own enormous ego
An over paid piece of nothing
But he wouldn't spend a second with you
