

Vicious Rumors, Out Of The Shadows

Out of the faceless shadows
Relentless changes in the night
Will it be alright, Oh
We're not alone
The shadow draws me home
The troubled times we undergo
Out of the shadows into the night
The seal has broken bearing your souls
No, no time to lose
The winds of change's upon us now
Sweat on your brow
No, no, you're not alone
We're riding wind or tides
Though time has come when choosing sides
The test of time
Sail on sail on
Out of the shadows into the night
The pages turn the story unfolds
Out of the shadows into the night
The meaning of sorrier times
Out of the shadows into the night
The pages turn the story unfolds
Out of the shadows into the night
The pages burn the story is told
Oh
