Videodrone, Closer To Coma

Have you seen my sanity? I seem to have left it at home I feel pushed up against the wall Like some Black Flag song

Oh I try to wash it away Every day, a little closer, a little closer to hell

Why am I so selfish? Hold on tight Everything will be alright if I choose I

Why am I so selfish?
I push away everyone who loves me
I don't want, want to be like this
I just want someone to hold me
Why am I so childish?
It's because my mother never loved me
I don't want to be like this
I just want someone to hold me
