Village People, San Francisco (You've Got Me)

SAN FRANCISCO (YOU'VE GOT ME)-Village People 1977

Folsom, Folsom street on the way to Polk and Castro You don't find them finer Freedom, freedom is in the air, yeah Searching for what we all treasure: pleasure Cycles, cycles in the night shining bright Brightly on nights tell a glory story Leather, leather, leather baby Levi's and T's are the best now all right Dress the way you please and put your mind at ease It's a city known for its freedom, freedom Cycles shining bright break the silence of the night Inhibitions, no, you don't need them, no, no, no San Francisco... city by the bay yeah... hey hey hey... You've got me... ahw ahw... take me to the water... Disco, disco party baby Music that sets you on fire, higher Say what's on your mind and spend a little time Every destiny there has a meaning, meaning Party 'till the night before the morning light You may feel your whole body screaming, ahw ahw... Got me, got me baby aaahhh Say you got me, love ya love you so, well Here's what I want you to do, take me, take me Take me baby, show me the way Take me... down to the bay Lead me to the water... well well it's you and me yeah Show me the way, why don't you show me the way hey Come on baby, let's get down, down, hmm Ain't nobody between you and me Baby baby feel fast free Baby baby let's do hot night Come on baby let's you and me swing Love the way I please, don't put no chains on me If you got the time, you could do it, do it What I need is love, that's all I'm thinking of Take me to the bay, lead me to it, now, now San Francisco... oh I love ya yeah...
