

Vir, In your eyes

feel it

When I hold so close I feel so hot

Your eyes are

Glittering brightly stars piercing my soul

Like a shining sword

I'll be yours

When you move your body swinging round

Desire

Wanna feel your touch making me cry

One man can't go on

If you only want to do it

I'd know you want to do it

In your eyes

When you dance

What if we ran to heaven

I wanna be in there

In your eyes

When you rock
