

Virginia Coalition, 74 Colors

Memories are measured out in years
Scattered blues and make believe
And the majesty that's in between Thickesses and distances are real
But we always stay in motion
And it makes us wait for signs of sheer devotion
Shedding grace with every moment
And life with every year
It's easy for the colors to confuse us