

Virginia Coalition, Referring Rosarita

So go on boy
Better get on outta here
Better get on outta here
But I better not hear you walking
Apology accepted
There's a virtue in defeat
You can speak your mind
But I better not hear you talking
Basically pretending, and commonly descending
This could be your voice

We were life-sized and hypnotized
It was a blessing in disguise
Life-sized and mystified
It was a blessing in disguise

I remember Rosarita, I'm referring Rosarita
But we could find a way to speak our situation
Hide away
You find it following over, following one by one
You're basically pretending, you're commonly descending
This could be your voice

We were life-sized and hypnotized
It was a blessing in disguise
Life-sized and mystified
She was a blessing in disguise

Every now and then Rosarita comes around
But she don't ever sing for me
Well I wonder if I know when and where
Just when and where we all belong
Well I know where, where you all belong
I know where you belong
