

Virgos Merlot, Cynical

I say nothing
and I listen well
Saw one floating
I doubt they scream when it fell

I should crawl under my skin in this corner to be wasting time blowing with any sail.

so don't fight for me
I don't want to be the one you blame
don't fight for me
you're better off Cynical
...and free.

I say something, you don't,
coming down to me while I'm thinking, turning around

Your so..so perfect and beautiful
I feel guilty just keeping you Here on the ground

I don't want to be the one you blame
don't fight for me
your better off Cynical
...and free
...FREE!

if you want, i'll wait in here to keep
let me go
I can't want, losing the pain anymore?
let me go

I don't want to be the one you blame
don't fight for me
...and free and free

I say nothing
I doubt they scream when it fell
