

Von Ra, I Still Care

Every time that I look into your eyes
I just can't wait another day
I let my spirit fly and you know that I
Will be with you all the way
But ain't it funny how time just slips away
Into the corners of my mind
And I'll be with you now; with you all the way
Till time's the only thing we can find
Things forgiven in a past that we both know
Often makes my wonder why
Why we can't be together
Why can't we give it another try
We both know the consequences
Of these misled feelings we both share
We've got to break down these mental fences
So I can show you I still care
