

Vonda Shepard, A Lucky Life

We've live a long long time and all the radios are playing our song tonight
We walk a crooked line 'cause there is a counter life in your jailed eyes
You're never a victim of your generation and you shine on me like a holy light
All of the miracles and conversations rain on me tonight

We've got a one track mind true as a railroad always on time
I see it in your eyes you don't have to talk to me I know what you're thinking
I need my solitude as much as you do darling to live this life we came here for Never for one single solitary moment did I need you more

We live a lucky life
I see it all tonight
We sit and close our eyes

Traveling to paradise or to anywhere we like
We live a lucky life

My home is on the road the pavement caters to to my gypsy soul
We walk the tightest rope we live in a circus circus of hope
All of the melodies and inspirations shine on me like a holy light
Right in the middle of our conversations you wink at me saying it's alright

We live a lucky life
I see it in your eyes
We sit and close our eyes
Traveling to paradise or to anywhere we like
We live a lucky life
