Wanda Jackson, Every Time They Play Our Song

EVERY TIME THEY PLAY OUR SONG (Howard Thomas - Rachel Lane) '58 Central Songs

I try to live without you and hold my head up high But every time they play our song it makes me cry I try to find a new love and let these mem'ries die But every time they play our song I have to cry I try to go to sleep each night and dream my blues away But every time I close my eyes the music's starting to play And then I can't forget you no matter how I try Every time they play our song I have to cry I try to go to sleep each night...
