

Wanda Jackson, Half That's Mine

You keep me broken hearted you with her half of the time
You can't choose between us you can't make up your mind
You live in two worlds one is hers and one is mine
If I can't have you completely she can have the half that's mine
I wonder if she knew that you are not free
Would she be willing to share half of you with me
You say that you love me and that you will let her go
That our home and children are what you need so
But until you convince me you'll be mine all of the time
I won't live with only half she can have the half that's mine
I won't live with only half she can have the half that's mine