

Wanda Jackson, Just for you

I gave up all my friends just for you when you were busy I stayed in just for you
Paid no mind to mom and dad when they said you'll turn out bad
I gave up everything I have just for you
I saved every single dance just for you never gave no one else a glance just for you
I gave my all so lovingly and all that you gave me
Was a broken heart that's cryin' just for you
I gave my live I gave my pride and now there's nothing nothing left inside
I gave so much with no return I guess my heart will never learn
Cause I still waste and I still yearn just for you
