

Wanda Jackson, Little charm bracelet

Little charm bracelet so lovely to see
Little charm bracelet means so much to me
Never was completed it now lay in the box
Little charm bracelet tells where our story stopped
The first charm you gave was a heart of gold
With it came all your love for me to always hold
I'll always remember with tears in my eyes
The night you gave the little key that locked our hearts so tight
Remember when you went away the gold phone you gave
With this you promised you'd call me every day
But someone must have stepped in and stole your love from me
I'll take the bracelet from my arm it will never be complete
Little charm bracelet...
